Goods which have adult content must comply with legislation, regulations and codes of conduct relating to the content and sale of such goods including:

1. Broadcasting Services Amendment (Online Services) Act 1999 (Cth);
2. Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Act 1995 (Cth) and the related Guidelines and Code;
3. Classification (Publications, Films and Computer Games) Enforcement Act 1995.

Goods which must not be sold or offered for sale or advertised on the Website include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Publications, films, computer games and other material where the content has either been refused classification or given an X18+ classification by the Classification Board. This includes pictures of nudity, real depictions of actual sexual activity, child pornography, depictions of bestiality, material including excessive violence or sexual violence and/or detailed instruction in crime, violence or drug use;

2. Publications, films, computer games and other material where the content has not been classified (for example, amateur films or images) but which, if classified, would be prohibited;
3. Publications, films, computer games, photographs, objects and other material which are indecent or obscene.

If The West Classifieds becomes aware of any Material posted by you on the Website which may be in breach of any law relating to classified or adult content, The West Classifieds will notify the Police or other authority. Such content will not be tolerated on the Website. Your membership will be terminated immediately if you upload any such content.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions, The West Classifieds is entitled to an indemnity in respect of any loss or damage suffered by The West Classifieds as a result of any Material uploaded on to the Website by you in breach of the above.

Items which cannot be sold because the sale or offering for sale would breach the rights of third parties include (but are not limited to):

1. Travel documents.
2. Items the sale or offering for sale of which would breach any third party's intellectual property rights (see The West Classifieds terms and conditions and The West Classifieds intellectual property policy).
3. Items the sale or offering for sale of which would result in a breach of a contractual obligation owed to another party.

Other items cannot be sold because they involve more than a simple offer and acceptance. Examples include:

1. Real estate.
2. Businesses.

The West Classifieds reserves the right to remove items for sale where, in the reasonable opinion of The West Classifieds, the item should not be listed for sale.

The West Classifieds accepts no liability and liability is excluded in relation to the sale, offering for sale or purchase of any item which is prohibited pursuant to the above policy.

If there are items for sale on the Website which you believe should not be for sale or offered for sale, please contact The West Classifieds.
